

Budgetcampervans.com/Italy FAQ's

Italy campervan and motorhome hire is one of the most popular countries to hire a campervan or motorhome. Italy is so diverse and so campervan friendly. The competition to hiring vehicles is mostly from the Italians! So please book early.

There are mostly larger campers or motorhomes up to 7-berths for hire but in a few areas you can find smaller campers.

The choice of depots is large. You will have to pay location fees in some cases so it is a good idea to check out the different locations as not all have these fees attached. Milan, Rome, Pisa, Venice, Florence, don't usually apply these.

The list of depots is currently:

Acerra, Alba, Albenga, Alghero, Ancronate, Asti, Avellino, Bari, Bergamo, Biella, Bologna, Brescia, Brindisi, Cagliari, Caltanissetta, Caserta, Catania, Cesena, Como, Cuneo, Florence, Foggia, Forli, Frosinone, Genoa, Genola, Giulianova, Golfo Aranci, Gorizia, Grosseto, Lecce, Lecco, Massa Carrara, Matera, Merate, Milan, Milan, Linate, Malpensa, Milazzo, Misano Adriatico, Naples, Napoli, Olbia, Padova, Palermo, Perugia, Parma, Pescara, Piombino, Pisa, Pistoia, Pomezia, PordVerbania, Vercelli, Verona, Vicenza.

This is the complete list so you can see that the Italian hire companies are very keen to deliver motorhomes to just about anywhere but at a cost.

Also, you can pick up and drop off at most locations but again there is a cost. This is usually €1.00 per km distance between your pick up point and drop off depot.
